

Agenda

Time	Session
9:00 am	Welcome on behalf of RCP Network, Bill Labich
9:05 am	Networking & Connecting
9:30 am	Keynote Address: Why and How to “Build a New Table” in Conservation Work <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Dr. Luna-Estrella – Founder, StarLuna Consulting▪ Chris Cato – Board President, Eagle Eye Institute Moderators: Bill Labich and Katie Blake – Highstead
10:15 am	Breakout discussion: Considering and Applying What was Shared
10:45 am	Self-care break
11:00 am	Morning Session: Relationship Building for Conservation and Climate: How to form transformational relationships with new partners Moderated Panel: Stories of Relationships Built <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Geordie Elkins – Highstead and Doreen Abubakar – Community Placemaking Engagement Network (CPEN)▪ Jennifer Albertine – Mt. Grace Land Conservation Trust and Andre Strongbearheart Gaines Jr. – Nipmuc Tribe Moderator: Amy Blaymore Paterson – Connecticut Land Conservation Council
11:45 am	Breakout discussion: Our reflections on Relationship Building
12:15 pm	Lunch Break with a self-care suggestion
12:45 pm	Leopold Conservation Award
1:15 pm	Afternoon Session: Collaboration for Conservation and Climate: How organizations are collaborating to build Climate Justice and Resilience into their work and community Moderated Panel: Stories of Collaboration for Climate Justice & Resilience <ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Melanie Gárate –The Stone Living Lab (SLL) and Boston Harbor Now▪ Reggy Saint Fortcolin – Aspetuck Land Trust and David Brant – Aspetuck Land Trust▪ Erin Witham – Downeast Conservation Network and Renee Gray – Town of Lubec, ME Moderator: Katharine Burgess – Smart Growth America
2:15 pm	Breakout discussion: What are or could be Our Stories of Collaboration for Climate Justice & Resilience?
2:45 pm	Final Word: Uplifting Young Voices and Re-Framing a Conservationist's Potential for Cultivating Community Cassandra Bull – National Farm to School Network
3:00 pm	Adjourn